Hello Blue Bucks friends!

The leaves have begun to change hues, the air is crisp, and that can only mean one thing...fall is here! My friends and I always enjoy the refreshing new shades this time of year provides, as we use them for inspiration in our doodles and drawings.

This issue of Blue Bucks Adventures features a cover that we left blank for you to create your own masterpiece with crayons, markers or any other colors you'd like to add. Also included is a how-to guide with steps to draw me, Milo! Using those instructions, you can design your own creative and unique version of your favorite moose, and don't forget to send it in to receive your special certificate!

Be sure to save all of your doodles to look back on as you grow into an expert artist. Speaking of savings and growth, keep your eyes peeled for the upcoming Blue Bucks Holiday CD that includes a fun Holiday gift. My friends and I hope you have a wonderful and color-filled holiday season!

Happy scribbling!

Milo
